SHRIMPEROO

Band: Tommy B. & The Stingers
at Lily's, behind Greentree Inn
Friday, May 4th, 2007, 6-10pm

We are proud to present
Tommy B. & The Stingers
at the District Conference SHRIMPEROO, Friday evening, May 4th, 2007, 6-10pm
at Lily's behind the Greentree Inn, Wilmington, NC.

Thank you to the Rotary clubs of Jacksonville for sponsoring the Shrimparoo!

Not only are Tommy B. & The Stingers one of Wilmington's hardest-working live acts, they've also got a back pocket full of awards to show for a solid decade of music-making, not to mention a world-class CD of their rhythm & blues favorites.

They were named Wilmington's Best Blues Band three years in a row by The Beat Magazine's Music Media Poll. More recently, they have enjoyed another three-year reign as #1 Blues Band in the Cape Fear region by virtue of the Wilmington Area Music Awards (the WAMmies!), with consecutive taped appearances on the WAMmie Awards Show broadcast on FOX26 TV.

Notably, the band has a variety of influences that make up its repertoire. While primarily blues-based, The Stingers also incorporate classic R&B, retro-rock, boogie-blues, and even jazz standards into every live show. It's a winning formula that always brings the audience to their feet and leaves everyone asking for more.
